The ideal candidate will have previously served as a YSS counselor for multiple summers. While no single formula can describe the person who would make the most effective senior counselor, applicants should be mature students who enjoy working with others and who feel committed to the intellectual and social values of residential college life. The job also requires resourcefulness, integrity, patience, attention to detail, a good sense of humor, excellent judgment, and energy.

Compensation: Each senior counselor is granted free tuition for one summer course credit ($3,900 non-transferable to another summer or institution) and a 21 meal-per-week room and board contract for the ten weeks of the program. Each senior counselor is also allowed two weekends away during the summer by pre-arrangement with the Head of Summer Colleges. No senior counselor may enroll in more than two summer course credits. Senior counselors can undertake limited part-time employment if it does not conflict with their scheduled responsibilities. Additionally, senior counselors are guaranteed a single room.

Additional Information: Senior counselors will be required to attend mandatory training sessions before the summer classes begin. Senior counselors must be on campus at Yale by 2:00 p.m., Thursday, May 25, 2017, for the start of counselor training. This training cannot be missed, made up, or sacrificed due to conflicts with other programs' commitments or training sessions. Inability to make the training sessions will result in the forfeiture of the counselor position. Senior counselor duties continue through Sunday, August 6, 2017. To be effective in their work, senior counselors should be familiar with the academic, dormitory, and dining hall regulations of Yale Summer Session. The senior counselors are pledged to uphold these regulations and make sure that Summer Session students uphold them as well. This obligation is especially strong with regard to monitoring the protection of personal and university property, the residents' right to safety and quiet, and the legal control of alcohol and other drugs.
