

SUMMER 2017
S112/S122

Portuguese for Romance Language Speakers

CLS 215

Dr. Elizabeth Jackson

Course Description: 112/122 is an 8-week (120 hours) intensive introduction to the Portuguese language of Brazil for Romance Language Speakers. Students will learn major grammatical structures while building oral fluency, listening comprehension, accurate pronunciation, and reading and writing skills. This class will introduce a variety of Brazilian literary, cultural, and historical topics through poetry, song, folklore, film, children's literature, games, interviews and readings. Learning activities will take place in and out of the classroom, including excursions to places of literary, historical, and artistic importance—daily attendance is required. This course will prepare students for Port 130.

June 17/18: we travel to the colonial city of Paraty, located on the coast midway between the cities of Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo, for one week in residence. Paraty was chosen for its historical significance, beauty and ecological importance. There you will begin to engage with Brazil's history, culture, language and people.

June 25: move to Rio de Janeiro. Class: IBEU-Ipanema @ R. Barão da Torre, 662, Ipanema

Schedule/activity changes will be announced, as necessary. Key word: flexibility.
